Phi Sigma

Fifty-sixth Year
1933-1934

Phi Sigma

Founded in 1878

HERE'S TO THE OPEN MIND

I would not close nor lock
My door against the knock
Of Truth and Love and Light
With lanterns in the night
Those friendly spirits three
Who want to visit me.

I would not close my eye
To rose or tree or sky
Nor yet my ear refuse
Where ecstasies suffuse
The voices of the birds
Beyond the reach of words.

My windows open wide
To take in all outside
Vibrations from on high
That bring my spirit nigh
To Truth which speaks to me
Of what is best to be.

ARTHUR MILLS CORWIN, M. D.

Both as a tribute to the memory of a dearly beloved member, and as an expression of a Phi Sigma ideal, the above poem is printed.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE 1—This Society shall be known as Phi Sigma.

ARTICLE 2—The officers shall consist of a President, Two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary who shall also act as Treasurer, and an Executive Committee.

ARTICLE 3—The Executive Committee shall consist of the President, the Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, and two others, who shall be elected by the Society. No officer may succeed himself.

ARTICLE 4—The duties of the President, Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer shall be such as usually devolve upon such officers.

ARTICLE 5—It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to prepare the annual program of the Society and publish the Year Book. This shall be done as soon as practicable after the Annual Meeting for the ensuing year. The Executive Committee shall also attend to such other matters as may be referred to it by the Society.

ARTICLE 6—Names of prospective members shall be proposed to the Executive Committee, and the names so proposed shall be voted upon by the Society at a meeting subsequent to their attendance as guests. The election of members shall be by ballot, three negative votes rejecting.

ARTICLE 7—Fifteen members shall constitute a quorum to transact business.

ARTICLE 8—Amendments to the Constitution and By-laws may be proposed at any meeting of the Society. Such proposed amendments shall be submitted in writing in open meeting and then be referred to the Executive Committee, which shall report at the next regular meeting on the advisability of such changes. The amendments shall then be voted on by ballot, a two-thirds vote of all members present being necessary for adoption.

ARTICLE 9—There may be a list of members known as Honorary Members, whose election shall be by ballot and shall require a unanimous vote of all members present at any regular meeting. No dues shall be required of such Honorary Members and they shall not have a vote in the Society.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE 1—Phi Sigma shall hold meetings monthly from October to May, inclusive, the December meeting being optional with the Executive Committee. The meetings shall be held the third Thursday of the month, subject to temporary change by the Executive Committee. Extra meetings may be called by the President or Executive Committee.

ARTICLE 2—Meetings of the Society shall commence promptly at 8:00 p. m.

ARTICLE 3—The annual election of officers shall be held at the April meeting.

ARTICLE 4—The annual dues of the Society shall be $2.00 per member, payable in advance at the October meeting.

ARTICLE 5—At the March meeting the President shall appoint a Nominating Committee of three members, none of whom shall be officers, to prepare a ticket of candidates for the offices of the Society. Said Committee shall present its report at the annual meeting in April. Other nominations may be made at the annual meeting. All elections of officers shall be by ballot.

ARTICLE 6—The active membership of the Society shall be limited to fifty.
